GRANTMAKERS INCOME SECURITY TASKFORCE

6th Annual Budget and Tax Briefing for Grantmakers

Hamilton Crowne Plaza
Hamilton Ballroom
14th and K Street, NW, Washington, DC

AGENDA

Tuesday, March 31st

- 10:00 – 11:45am Pre-Conference Forum: Ensuring Low-Income Families are Included in the 2010 Census
- The Decennial Census has historically undercounted marginalized populations, specifically people of color and low-income communities, as well as children. For the 2010 Census, the challenges of achieving a complete and accurate count are particularly daunting. This interactive briefing and strategy session will inform funders about the changing demographics of the US population, existing and new challenges to accurately counting low-income and minority populations, and the efforts of foundations and grantees working to ensure a fair and accurate Census count.

10:45 – 11:00am Break

11:00 – 12:45pm Policy Update: Early Childhood and Health Reform

Early childhood education has recently received more attention, from both the new administration and Congress. Healthcare reform is also high on the agenda. The agenda, however, is stacked: two wars, an eye-popping deficit, and a faulty economy. Where do these issues find space, and when that space is found, will the interconnected needs of children get the depth of consideration necessary?

- Stephanie McGencey, Executive Director, Grantmakers for Children, Youth & Families (Moderator)
- John Schlitt, Project Director, Advancing Home Visiting Strategies for At-Risk Families, Pew Center on the States, The Pew Charitable Trusts
